SENSATIONAL CARD SCAM CREATES FURORE AT COURT

Member of Royal Household Is Charged With Cheating at Poker

ACCUSED DENIES THE CHARGE ABSOLUTELY

King's Derby Day Dinner Not Attended by Prominent Royal Persons Because of Incident

London, June 5.—Gossip is agog over the story of a card scandal that may have as sensational developments as the Gordon Cummings case at Trancheville Court, when King Edward VIII was charged with cheating at poker at a hotel. The story is that the prince of Wales appeared as witness in court. The new affair has already had remarkable consequences, among them the question of a number of guests invited to attend the King's dinner at Buckingham Palace on Derby night, and the decision to close the White House to the town over Whitstable holiday, in order to avoid the possibility of a riotous scene in the street.

The King is doing his utmost to keep the affair private and prevent scandalous news from being spread abroad, but so far only a compromise has been reached, which is that of the parties interested in refusing to accept a full solution. The person against whom charges of cheating are made is a member of the King's household, who has been charged with cheating at poker at the Duke of Devonshire's house. It was in this connection that the King remained in town Whitstable holiday, in order to avoid the possibility of a riotous scene in the street.

Refused to Meet Accused. The first reports of the affair reached the royal court on Monday. The King refused to meet the accused, and the King refused to meet the accused, and the King refused to meet the accused.

CHICAGO GRAIN AND STOCKS

Good Reports From Canada and United States Offset Those of Europe

By Bulletin Leased Wire.
CHICAGO, June 5.—Good field conditions over the entire domestic and Canadian wheat belt today more than offset British distress from Europe and Argentina, and in consequence the market here closed easy at the same as last night, 1/4 lower. Oats finished off 1/4 to 1/2.

It was clear and hot, as it made it early for the wheat harvest in the winter crop states. On the other hand, rains here and there were hailed throughout the spring crop region all the way into the Canadian north-west, setting pressure on the result continuously during the season. The fact that the market held up as well as it did today, largely due to reports of delayed sowing in Argentina, and the fact that the acreage there being diminished, largely due to the fact that the market held up as well as it did today, largely due to reports of delayed sowing in Argentina.

DOMINION DEBT, CURRENCY AND FINANCE

By Bulletin Leased Wire.
LONDON, June 5. (W.A.P.)—Special Cable.—The Canadian government has given the stock market a surprise today when it announced that it had underwritten here for a loan of $10,000,000 at 4 per cent. The loan price is 95.

The proceeds are slated to be for public works and railways, as in the case with the existing Canadian four per cent, while the two per cent on the announcement of the new loan.

The stock market was generally heavy, owing to the continued liquidation in Paris, and the announcement of the tripartite labor agreement between the miners, railway men, and transport workers, which is regarded as a danger alarm for the future. Consols were 1/4 lower at the close, while some calls and mining shares fell from 1/4 to 1/2.

Canadian securities were weak, and closed 1/8 to 1/4, the statement of earnings not being regarded as satisfactory. Great Britain and South American securities were sold off, while Canadian Industrials were steady, but shares were weak, especially the shares of the Southern Alberta land, which are held for the possibility of further trouble in the Canadian market.
